FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading 1 Isaiah 50.4-7
Responsorial Psalm My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Reading II Philippians 2.6-11
Gospel Mark 14.1 – 15.47
 This woman put her own reputation and safety on the line to comfort the one she loved, to give thanks for his compassion. Her action would be remembered forever, and the scent of her ointment is the scent of resurrection. This nard would soothe the spirits of those who would always miss Jesus.
 Part of our prayer is missing Jesus when he seems so absent, when prayerful feelings seem so distant. The scent of the Lord in our lives keeps us going.

PASSION / PALM SUNDAY APRIL 1ST, 2012

The joy and sorrow of this day.

The children of Jerusalem welcomed Christ the King. They proclaimed the resurrection of life, and waving olive branches, they loudly praised the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. We now realize that for many people this triumphant entry was very short-lived. Just five days later the enthusiastic hosannas gave way to angry shouts of Crucify him! What accounts for such a sharp turn-about, and such inconsistent behavior? If we are to understand at all, perhaps we only need to look at little into our own hearts.

The Liturgical Committee

CHRISM MASS THIS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 04, 2012 @ 7:00 P.M.

The Archbishop invites us to participate in the Chrism Mass over which he presides at the Cathedral. That is the Mass during which he will consecrate and bless the oils used for Baptism and Confirmation and for the Anointing of the Sick. At the end of the Mass the Archbishop will distribute the oils to representatives from the parishes and institutions where they will be used in the course of the year.

EASTER FLOWERS

A donation basket is available at the top of the stairs at OLV for donations towards our Easter Flowers. If you would prefer to donate a plant in honour of a loved one, it would be much appreciated. You may indicate on the sheets the type of plant that you will be donating.

EASTER VIGIL - PARTICIPATION MORE THAN DESIRABLE

If there is one service that gives a good display of the Christian faith, it is the Easter Vigil. But it is strange and unfortunate that many Catholics have never participated in it. "It is too long", some say. Really? a good movie or a hockey game takes about the same amount of time, and there is less at stake in it.

At the Easter Vigil we gather around the primary symbols of our faith: our assembling, the cross, the Easter candle, the Scriptures, the baptismal water and the bread and wine of the Eucharist. All this to celebrate the new light and life with which God graces us in the Crucified and Risen Lord. Not to be missed! 9:00 P.M. at Our Lady of Victory.

OLV PARISH is in need of a second fridge for the kitchen in the basement hall. Should you have one to donate please contact the OLV Society, Monique Simpson at 819 986-3166 or contact the office at 819 986-3763. Thanks*

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

Welcome to all who want to make their faith home here! You may have come from other places. You may have been “away for a while”. Be assured that we love to have you among us. We would appreciate it very much if you identified yourself at Mass. It would also help if you would take the time to fill out a registration form. The next time you are with us, you may leave it in the collection basket or give it to one of the ushers or to the priest. Welcome.
