FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading Wisdom 11.22 – 12.2
Responsorial Psalm I will bless your name forever, my King and my God.
Reading II 2 Thessalonians 1.11-2.2
Gospel Luke 19.1-10

In my prayers, Lord, I am often like Zacchaeus, making great efforts to catch a glimpse of you, only to find that you are already there, waiting for me, calling me by name, inviting yourself in.

Once I am with you. I find happiness in putting things right, order in my life, finding the springs of generosity and justice that I have stifled by my habits

NOVEMBER – THE MONTH IN WHICH WE REMEMBER THE DECEASED:

November is traditionally the month in which we give more attention to the remembrance of the deceased. Christians do so in a unique way based on what is central in our faith: the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In our two parishes, we have a tradition of leaving our Book of Life at the front of the church for the month of November. The Book of Life contains the names of deceased parishioners and relatives. Some additional pages are provided at the back of the book if anyone wants to add names. It is our way of expressing our faith that the dead find peace with God and will be raised to life when the Lord Jesus comes in glory. The families who lost someone in the past year were invited to participate in a short ceremony by lighting a candle from the Easter candle during our weekend celebrations.

The Book is placed next to the Easter Candle which speaks of the ultimate victory of life over death, of light over darkness, in the dead and risen Jesus. We are called to share in that victory.

CELEBRATING TODAY'S LITURGY:

The celebration of Eucharist offers us an opportunity to bring together the various strands present in today's liturgy of the word. First, we assemble to celebrate in Eucharist the wonders of God's creation and to experience Christ's presence.

Second, the action of assembling implies that we celebrate together, as a community, with all of our insecurities and differences, our strengths and our weaknesses.

Since receiving the body of Christ is a communal event, may we be especially attentive to the needs of others during this liturgical moment, allowing others to go before us, being patient with those who walk more slowly, and opening our hearts in prayer on behalf of all of God's creation.

GRIEF SESSION:

The next Grief Session at OLV has been changed from the second Tuesday of November which will be November 12, to the third Tuesday of November which will be November 19. There is no change in the time.

HARVEST SUPPER:

Once again, parishioners and guests were treated to a great meal at last Friday's Harvest Supper sponsored by our two parishes. These parish events are becoming well known as social gatherings where families and old friends can meet and enjoy each other's company. Ticket demands for this year's supper were unprecedented and many wanted to immediately book reservations for the next supper.

To Lorraine McDermid, a special thank you for her donation of a beautiful painting of a local scene near the Arnold Abraham farm at La Blanche. Also, thank you to all those who donated a wide-range of gifts for the raffle, as well as those who provided desserts.

Of course, none of this would have happened if it weren't for the volunteers who, year after year, organize and coordinate the event. Our community owes them a great deal. Also, we would like to recognize José and Louise Berthiaume at Palais Gommé for donating their ovens to cook the turkeys.

For the evening, the total profits were $5,114 split evenly between our two parishes, which amounts to $2,557 each. A profitable evening on all fronts!

OLV NEWS - THANKS FOR YOUR HELP:

Once again, we called upon one of our parishioners, Lewis Rowe, to assist in repairs to the rectory. It is so important that we can count on parishioners to give of their time to support our parish. Lewis' help is greatly appreciated.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY TEA.

Our annual Christmas Tea will be held this year on December 07, from 1:30 to 3.30 pm. It is not too early to think about your baking for the bake sale and food tables. There will also be a Craft Table. All donations of Christmas crafts will be appreciated.

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

Welcome to all who want to make their faith home here! You may have come from other places. You may have been “away for a while”. Be assured that we love to have you among us. We would appreciate it very much if you identified yourself at Mass. It would also help if you would take the time to fill out a registration form. The next time you are with us, you may leave it in the collection basket or give it to one of the ushers or to the priest. Welcome.
