FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Reading 1 1 Kings 17.10-16
Responsorial Psalm Praise the Lord, O my soul!
Reading II Hebrews 9.24-28
Gospel Mark 12.38-44

Jesus did not seem to believe in appearances. Shows of piety and religiousness did not of themselves impress him. He saw behind the tiny amount of money to the huge generosity of the heart in the case of the poor widow.

Jesus often pointed out that religious appearances can be empty and hypocritical. Let me reflect on that this week.

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE ARCHBISHOP - NOVEMBER 2015

"So that we open ourselves up to personal encounters and dialogue with others even those who have different beliefs than ours."

Social reflection: In the 1960s and 1970s, Herbert Marshall McLuhan, a Canadian teacher of Sociology (Studies in Communication) talked about the "global village". Today in the era of the Internet, Facebook, Twitter, etc., we are living in this "global village", where many cultures coexist. Sometimes, these interactions with different cultures may lead to culture shock and misunderstandings. Sometimes, a certain malaise settles itself into the relationship. What must we do in order to fully live inter culturalism in our parish, our town and our country? And why not accommodate (view) our differences as complementary?

Answering our faith: Our Christian faith calls us to fully live the inclusion with people from different cultures. Jesus' message is centered upon meeting others, and seeing the other person as he or she is. Saint John describes the meeting between Jesus and the Samaritan woman (Jn 4, 1-42); from this unexpected meeting between a man and a woman, and between two cultures, life emerged. As a community, how can we include people from different cultures into our celebrations, and into the life of our parish? Maybe these cultural exchanges will bring new life to our community?

Questioning Ourselves Sunday, November 8th, 2015: I look around me to see if there are people from different cultures whom I encounter in my personal life, at work, at church, etc... If so, I try to interact with them on their culture and on mine. If not, I try to meet people who come from a different culture than mine.

Prayers and Sympathy

Pray for the repose of the soul of Gladys Murphy French whose funeral was on October 31st at St. Malachy church in Mayo.

Also pray for the repose of the soul of Isabelle Bouchard (Phil Casey's sister).
Our sympathy and prayers are with their families and friends during this time of loss.

Daily Bread Program

The Coordinator of the Daily Bread Program, Stacey Smallian, wishes to pass on her heartfelt thanks to the parishioners of Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy as well as to the Buckingham Friendship Club for their overwhelming support for the Program. The complete needs list was more than addressed through the generosity of all those involved. Once again, our parishioners have shown their generosity in support of our English-language school

Many Thanks from La Mie de l'entraide

During the month of October, parishioners from our two parishes, Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy, were asked to contribute to a "Thanksgiving" project to help out our local food bank, La Mie de l'entraide. Last Monday, parishioners delivered the non-perishable food collected, as well as monetary donations, to the food bank on Pine Street. The Director, David Reny, wishes to sincerely thank our two parishes for our generosity, especially the quality of the food donated, adding that these donations will certainly go a long way to ensuring that La Mie de l'entraide can help those who have nowhere else to go to support their families. Once again, our spiritual community has met the challenge of helping those most in need.

The OLV Conference Room :

The Inter- Parish Planning Committee has plans for the Conference Room located in the church basement. They would like to convert the room into a spiritual place for religious training (sacramental preparation), committee meetings, as well as a place of tranquility and prayer. The room will be available for groups and individuals from both of our Parishes.
