Monthly Prayer Intentions of Our Bishop August, 2018

“Let us pray for people who are evicted and/or driven away from their country; those who are under threat and must leave hurriedly their land at the risk of their life; those who are taken advantage of by large multinational companies at the expense of local peasants, so that human dignity will be respected for all.”

Questions I ask myself: Aug 19: Am I aware of the sexual violence experienced by women in Congo? I take time to read an article to understand what is going on.

Aug 26: Yes, indeed, in 2018, priests in African countries and elsewhere are under threat of kidnapping, extortion, death; I take a moment to pray the Holy Spirit to assist them and inspire us potential actions we can take for them.

FATHER ALBANUS REFLECTIONS on the SUNDAY LITURGY for August 18-19

I am the Living Bread

Today's readings stress the fact that the Holy Eucharist, the perfect fulfillment of the symbol of the manna of the Old Testament, is the Food that gives us life forever. In last Sunday's Gospel, Jesus declared that the Bread He gives is His Flesh. This Sunday, Jesus asserts that to eat this Bread is to have eternal life. In today's first reading, taken from the Book of Proverbs, Lady Wisdom, representing God, offers wisdom and understanding in the form of a rich banquet to all those who are willing to heed her invitation. The early Christians often identified Jesus as the Wisdom of God. They regarded the Eucharist as Wisdom's banquet, where they shared in the Divine Wisdom now Incarnate in Jesus. The Responsorial Psalm (Ps 34), thanks God for His providential care and His close association with His people, and invites all to "taste and see the goodness of the Lord." In the second reading, Paul advises the Gentile Christians to behave as wise people by showing their gratitude to God for calling them, along with the Jews, to Christianity, and for giving them a share in Christ's life. They will be able to receive this life by avoiding their former foolish ways, like getting drunk on wine. Instead, they are to be Spirit-filled with their talk edifying, always trying to discern and do the will of God.

The Gospel tells us of the Wisdom that comes from God and nourishes people, giving them life. It is the Body and Blood of Christ. Thus, Jesus asserts that eating the Living Bread, Himself, allows us to participate in His life and to grow here and now in our eternal life with God. He emphasizes the eternal-life dimensions of eating His Body and drinking His Blood – that those who have faith in Jesus and do so have already stepped into Heaven in this life, sharing in God's own life and therefore in eternal life. Jesus is the Word of God; by listening to Him, that is, accepting to identify ourselves with His person, we achieve eternal life. Our participation in the Eucharist also concretizes and energizes our relationship with Christ and with one another. To receive the Eucharist means to be assimilated with Christ, to be identified with Him.

When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus Himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one Body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ's Body for the life of the world. Like Christ, we need to allow our body to be broken and our blood to be shed for others. That is why, at the end of the Mass, we are sent out to announce the Gospel of the Lord by our humble service and exemplary lives, radiating Jesus' love, mercy, forgiveness and spirit of service all around us. We need to keep the hunger and thirst for God alive in our hearts: every human being is blessed with an insatiable longing for God. We want God as our Father to hold us gently in His arms, keeping us safe throughout the dangers we face. But often we use substitutes as an escape from that need: fast living, fast food, fast cars, needless luxuries, unrestricted sexual fulfillment, name them. We demand the right to do whatever we want to do whenever we want. But the truth is that unless we keep the hunger for God strong in our hearts, we will eventually realize the emptiness of our lives without Him. Happy Sunday!
