FOOD FOR THOUGHT

First Reading: Proverbs 8.22-31
Responsorial Psalm: O Lord, our God, how majestic is your name in all the earth
Second Reading: Romans 5-15
Gospel: John 16.12-15

I shall have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

WE ARE BACK IN ORDINARY TIME

The Church's year is made up of two high seasons (Lent-Easter and Advent- Christmas) and two blocks of what, in Church language, is called Ordinary Time. It is most noticeable in the changed décor of the Church. The Easter banners have gone and on most Sundays the priest wears green vestments. Some of the music which is integral to the Mass also tends to be different. We will be in that mode for a good stretch of time, basically until the Advent season begins, November 27th.

Of course, there are always exceptions to the rule: this Sunday, Trinity Sunday, and next Sunday, Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. The vestments are white to mark the two feasts that the Church observes on these Sundays. These two feasts could be seen as spin-offs from the enormous and foundational event we celebrated in the fifty days of Easter and for which we prepared in the forty-day Lenten season: the crucified Jesus being raised from the dead.

Trinity Sunday makes us focus on the source of that central mystery of our faith, the communion of life and love which is God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ makes us face the Mystery of the Eucharist where, ideally, we are formed as a communion which has its origin in the communion of God Father, Son and which is called to reflect that communion of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

St. Grégoire Parish

The Church is open every Thursday from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Place of silence: RESTHEALING.....PEACE.
