EASTER MESSAGE FROM BISHOP DUROCHER

In this Jubilee Year 2025, Pope Francis invites us to be “pilgrims of hope.” A pilgrimage is more than a hike. Typically, you must devote days, even weeks, to it. Every morning, you must recommit to the road, rain or shine. You have to be willing to walk through dreary, boring landscapes as well as more enchanting environments. You must endure sprains and blisters, meagre meals and hard beds. But the goal keeps you moving forward. Pilgrims know where they’re going.

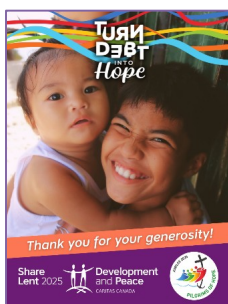

And pilgrims don’t journey alone, for they find themselves surrounded by brothers and sisters who share the same goal, the same ideal. Together, they move forward, encouraging each other, helping each other and singing along the way

As Christians, we become “pilgrims of hope” by following our leader, Jesus. His path leads to the fullness of life, eternal life. Of course, like him, we’ll have to walk through the terrible valley of Good Friday. But the hope he gives us generates in us the courage and strength to live through the ordeal with love, just as he did.

On this Easter Sunday, and throughout the fifty days of the Easter season, let us rejoice with the One who accompanies us on every stage of our pilgrimage. May his Spirit transform and enliven us, making us true “pilgrims of hope.” May you have a blessed, joy-filled Easter!

† Paul-André Durocher

OUR EASTER FAITH DISPLAYED IN THE BANNERS AT OLV

The set of banners you see in the front of the church will be with us covering the entire Easter season, until Pentecost Sunday on June 8th. They are more than a piece of decoration. In vivid images, they capture what as church we are about in the Easter season.

The cross, which on its own is an instrument of torture and shame, has been transformed into the tree of life. That is what the resurrection of Jesus makes possible. The sun of the new creation has dawned and the roots of the cross, of the tree of life reach into the darkest corners of our human existence to bring life. Part of that new creation is that the risen Christ shares his life-giving Spirit with us; that is captured in the red banner with its flames of fire. The lower banner shows us how in the waters of baptism we have got our feet in the new creation of the risen Jesus. Thank You!

Thank you to all who participated in our Easter celebrations. Thank you to all who in any way contributed to the Chrism Mass, Holy Thursday, Saturday Easter Vigil, Easter Sunday – Fr. Greg, servers, greeters, lectors, participants who received and presented oils, organists, choir, fire and light attendants, preparation of church for celebrations, etc. These celebrations could not have been accomplished without your help.
