A WORD FROM FATHER JOHN

It is easier to compare oneself to another and come out on top! But when you compare yourself to Jesus in whose image you are created, you always bottom out!

“There are even some faults, in which there is no harm beyond their abjection, and although humility does not require us to commit them intentionally, it does require of us not to be disturbed at having committed them. I mean certain foolish acts, incivilities and inadvertencies, which we ought to avoid as far as may be out of civility and decorum but of which, if accidentally committed, we ought to accept the abjection heartily, out of humility.” St. Frances De Sales.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE, CARITAS CANADA

Update on the Special Collection for the Gaza Crisis Held Recently in our Parishes

Within days of the ceasefire, Caritas Jerusalem mobilized its medical teams in Gaza to deliver 10,000 cans of infant formula to families with newborns and young children who had been deprived of basic nutrition throughout the months of conflict.

From the very first day after the war, Caritas Jerusalem has been working tirelessly to support the people of Gaza — especially the most fragile: children, mothers, and the elderly. Delivering infant formula was not only about food but about restoring life and hope.
