CHRISTMAS MESSAGES

Fr. John

Christmas A 2025: My dear parishioners, a heartfelt and truly joyous Christmas to each and everyone of you! As our one true God becomes man, there is no deception in this union of the two natures in the infant. As our Creator becomes a creature we are given such great cause for wonder. As the Eternal One enters into our history, time itself becomes pregnant with heavenly things! And so, our Advent waiting is turned into great joy. Christmas changes how we live, not what we believe as Catholics.

Blessed Christmas and New Year to each of you! Let us remember each other in our prayers during our celebrations!

OLV Wardens

We celebrate the Nativity of Our Lord, a story of a couple seeking refuge. Let us remember that in welcoming the stranger and the marginalized, we are welcoming Christ Himself.

 On behalf of all the wardens of Our Lady of Victory parish, we wish you a holy blessed Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

St. Malachy Wardens

At Christmas, God gives us the best gifts: Jesus, along with Mary, Joseph, the shepherds and the Magi. Let us welcome Him with great joy and peace in our hearts! The wardens wish all our parishioners, their families and friends, a Blessed and Joyous Christmas and a Happy New Year.

FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

January 1 Mary the Mother of God

Dear Parishioners,

As we stand on the threshold of the New Year, the Church turns our eyes to Mary who herself is pondering her Child, the Prince of Peace lying in the manger. January 1, the Feast of the Mother of God is also the World Day of Prayer for Peace. Both of them in the company of St Joseph will journey into life defenceless and unarmed. We, too, can journey unarmed into our New Year. "Goodness is disarming. Perhaps this is why God became a child," said our Holy Father in his Message for Peace for Jan 1st 2026. Let us arm ourselves with this same goodness which is stronger than the fear and anxious expectation of war in the minds of many. Blessed New Year of Peace! Fr. John.

Epiphany 2026

The astonishment of the wisemen can be ours today! They behold a baby and yet they discern a king. Amid the smells of a dirty cattle stall, they offer incense to their God. They see a poor maiden and are convinced that she is the mother of the King of Kings! They see the foster father Joseph and believe him to have a dignity above any human father. They forsake their royal robes as they bow down in worship, not in a court but in a cave and in the dirt. Are we ready to do the same?
