FATHER JOHN’S MESSAGE

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time A

In the middle East and in the Far East hospitality is often a spontaneous occurrence, not a planned one. Homes and hearts have a place reserved for an unexpected guest. The Gospel spreads by hospitality, not only for a meal but even for the smallest gesture of a glass of water! In the Letter to the Hebrews, it is written of Abraham that by his hospitality he inadvertently welcomed angels and like the Shunammite woman in today’s first reading, he was promised a son! Through an even greater privilege, we through our hospitality welcome the Son of God in the person of the guest. Keep the door of your home and your heart open!

Peace. Fr. John

There are two exceptions to this change occurring on July 11th and August 8th. AFTER* October 3rd, Mass will once again be celebrated at St. Malachy's on Saturday at 5pm. The Liturgy of the Word/Communion Service does fulfill your Sunday obligation, if you are living in Mayo. Thank you! Fr. John

A SUMMARY OF THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE BISHOP

It is important to refresh our understanding of the way in which we interact with the gift of the Eucharist. Please remember that the most Holy Eucharist may not be reserved in a private home without the legitimate authorization of the competent ecclesiastical authority. This usually means the bishop.

When bringing Holy Communion to a sick or homebound person, in order to respect the dignity of the One whom we are carrying, the Eucharist must be carried in a proper pyx. Any other means such as a handkerchief, paper napkin, or any other unsuitable container is not appropriate or permissible.

If you are someone who routinely carries the Eucharist to shut-ins, please contact the pastor for a spare pyx. Thank you for giving due reverence to Him who has made himself so available to us journeying home. Fr. John
